DFC/USPS-71. Please refer to the revised response to DFC/USPS-35(b), filed on July 12, 2001.

- a. For a city-delivery post office such as New York, New York, please confirm that Postal Service policy requires a final collection on Saturdays as late in the day as possible but not earlier than 1:00 PM for every collection box that is accessible to the public on Saturdays and that receives an average of 100 pieces of mail or more on weekdays. If you do not confirm, please provide copies of memos issued by Delivery Policies and Programs after July 23, 1999, that support your decision not to confirm the statement in this interrogatory.
- b. Please confirm that some collection boxes in Manhattan that receive an average of 100 pieces of mail or more on weekdays and that are accessible to the public on Saturdays have a final Saturday collection prior to 1:00 PM. If you do not confirm, please explain.
- c. Please confirm that some collection boxes in Manhattan, including mail chutes located in buildings, are not scheduled for a Saturday collection. If you do not confirm, please explain.
